Conversation Afternoons

Dates to be announced

Dr Kathleen Williams RSM will run two Wednesday conversation afternoons on the theme of living responsibly and preserving the richness of our world through using the writings of Bernard Lonergan SJ.

*To grasp the contemporary issue and to meet its challenge calls for collective effort.
It is not the individual but the group that transforms culture.*

The human good is at once individual and social.

What TV Production has taught me about God

Reflections of a Television Producer

In each session Television Producer, Peter Thomas, shows his documentary and talks about the experience of his involvement in each production and the effects this experience has had on his life.

Newman, a Man for Our Time A documentary about the controversial figure of Cardinal John Henry Newman who is to be beatified by Pope Benedict in 2010.

The Sacred Stones A reconciliation story between indigenous and white Australians.

A Nun's New Habit by guest filmmaker, Robyn Haughan. It's the story of Sr Carmel Wauchope who regularly visited the Baxter detention centre and hence has befriended many asylum seekers and refugees.

Picking Up the Pieces Highlights the lives of different people who by sharing their experiences, feelings and frustrations, bring different insights into the meaning of grief.
